NEW SPRING SUITS.

New Spring Garments

that are ready here are a decided change from the long strictly tailored suits of the last three seasons. Etons will predominate, with the coat suit in lengths from 19 to 24 inches a close second; Princess Suits will also be shown, but as compaiatively few women can wear this style, the sales are likely to be limited.

Elbow and three-quarter sleeves will be the most popular, variously finished at cuff, many with lace, others with pretty trimmed turnback cuff. Much attention will be given the skirt this Spring—The circular style with gored sides or two-piece, many with folds at bottom, others with panel sides. Broadcloths will be in high favor in gray mixtures, stripes and checks will be in demand, and white serges and linens will follow later.
